Personal Profile :

I'm an enthusiastic, hardworking student, soon finishing my A levels, with a key interest in progressing my career with computer science. I am looking for a degree apprenticeship in software engineering and would love to progress to a career in software development in the future. I have some experience working within computer related firms and testing code, with my work experience, and also have a key interest in coding, having developed some software myself. I have a genuine interest in the industry, through my work in my EPQ, and have always aspired to progress within the computing industry.
